TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

Applicants who wish to have their photographic portfolio or proposed designs returned, will need to provide a stamped, self addressed envelope with their application. Whilst all due care will be taken, no responsibility will be taken for the recovery of lost or damaged portfolios.

All designs will remain the property of the designer. Judges' decisions will be final and no correspondence will be entered into. Kerry Fashion Week reserves the right to display or publicise any and all images and designs of the Kerry Fashion Week events and awards.

Kerry Fashion Week and valued sponsors, will provide professional PR services, production, models, hair and make up and event management to each finalist in order to showcase their collection. However, it must be understood that individual requests of each finalists in relation to their styling, hair, make up, sound, staging and all other aspects of the event cannot be met. The event will be styled so as to showcase to the highest standard the multi talents of every designer participating. The KFW team is committed to producing the highest standard event for all participants and the audience and your understanding and co operation is required.

All finalists and awards winners shall make themselves available for any publicity and promotional opportunity afforded by Upfront PR and Kerry Fashion Week. Applicants and all other parties will be expected to conduct themselves with professionalism, courtesy and in a spirit of cooperation at all times.
